Welcome to Indiana University School of Dentistry (IUSD), located on the Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) campus. We are pleased to have you here!

IUPUI is an urban research and academic health science campus. Over 29,000 students attend IUPUI representing 49 states and 122 counties. The IUSD Office of Records and Admissions stands ready to help you in whatever way we can to make your stay at IUSD productive. This handbook is meant to be your guide to the campus and the community surrounding it. Thank you for choosing IUSD and enriching our school with your presence here. We look forward to getting to know you and assisting you throughout your stay.

History of IUSD

IUSD is one of the oldest dental schools in the nation, and the only dental school in the state. It got its start as the Indiana Dental College in 1879 and was purchased by Indiana University in 1925. Patient treatment is provided at the school, as well as Riley Hospital for Children, Wishard Memorial Hospital, and other clinics throughout the community.

About 110 full-time faculty and 120 part-time faculty members contribute to IUSD’s teaching and research programs, and many have earned solid reputations as experts in their fields. Additionally, about 70 persons serve the school as part-time non-paid consultants and volunteers.

The IU School of Dentistry has about 10,500 living alumni. They are pursuing careers throughout the United States and in more than 30 other countries. IUSD grads have been named to prestigious leadership posts in organized dentistry and in dental education throughout the world.

About 600 students are currently pursuing 7 types of degree and/or certificate programs in dental assisting, dental hygiene, dentistry, and graduate dentistry. The following programs are offered by Indiana University School of Dentistry:

- Certificate in Dental Assisting

Community Living Guide

Many of the IUSD students live near the campus or in the surrounding communities. We have provided some useful information about various resources, services and activities that are available to you, while living in Central Indiana and the state.

Shopping in the Indianapolis Area
First, try searching online – http://www.indydt.com/retailtemplate.asp is a great website about shopping in downtown Indianapolis. You search by product category, and it gives you a list of stores with a link to a mapping service. Many store links are also included so you can check out store products and prices before making the trip.

Superstores
To help save on the cost of transportation, it is best to shop at a place that sells just about everything: food, clothing, furniture, electronics, cosmetics, pharmacy, etc. Prices are cheap compared to department stores. Below are the most common stores of this kind:

Super Target (www.target.com)
1) 4850 E Southport Road, Indianapolis, IN 46237-3321
2) 10209 E US Highway 36, Avon, IN 46123-7985
3) 895 S State Rd 135, Greenwood, IN 46143-9413
4) 10401 N Michigan Road, Carmel, IN 4632-7939

Meijer (www.meijer.com)
1) 5349 Pike Plaza Rd., Indianapolis, IN 46254
2) 5325 E Southport Road, Indianapolis, IN 46237
3) 10841 Rockville Road, Avon, IN 46123
4) 159 S Martin Drive, Greenwood, IN 46143

Wal-Mart Supercenters
1) 4650 South Emerson Ave., Indianapolis, IN 46203
2) 7325 North Keystone Ave., Indianapolis, IN 46240
3) 7245 US Hwy 31 South, Indianapolis, IN 46227
4) 4545 Lafayette Road, Indianapolis, IN 46254, (317) 328-0325

Shopping Malls
Just about every mall in Indianapolis is owned by Simon Malls. They include:

- Castleton Square
- Clay Terrace
- Lafayette Square
- Greenwood Park Mall
- Circle Centre
- Fashion Mall at Keystone
- Washington Square

Circle Centre Shopping Mall is less than 2 mines from campus. For directions to all of these malls, please go to this website: http://www.simon.com/findamall/default.aspx

Grocery Stores
The “Superstores” listed above all have large grocery sections. Other common grocery stores with lower prices are Marsh and Kroger

Ethnic Grocery Stores
Many grocery stores carry a variety of ethnic foods, but it is even better to visit an ethnic grocery store to find brands you may have used at home. To search for ethnic grocery stores in Indianapolis, visit http://www.indyethnicfood.com. This site can also give you driving directions.

Pharmacies
The Superstores listed above all include pharmacies, as do most grocery stores. Other common pharmacies are CVS and Walgreens.

Restaurants
On Campus
Cafeterias can be found in these buildings on campus:
- Riley Hospital
- Chancellor’s (located in University Place)
- IU Hospital

IUSD has a canteen in the basement. You may purchase vending machine sandwiches and snacks as well as soda, juice and water. Once a week a hot lunch is served in the canteen. Students may also bring their lunch and store them in refrigerators located in the DDS mailroom. Students are responsible for their lunches and the refrigerators are emptied at the end of each week.

Chartwells Dining Services/Food Court is located in the Campus Center at the corner of Michigan Street and University Blvd:
- Bamboo Asian
- Caribou Coffee
- Chick Fil-A
- Coyote Jack’s Grill
- Mamma Leone’s
- Mondo Subs
- Outtakes
- Wild Greens

Within Walking Distance
The following restaurants are located at the corner of University Blvd and Indiana Avenue:
- Au Bon Pain
- Nothing But Noodles
- Qdoba Mexican Grill
- Papa John’s Pizza
- Pizza Express
- Subway
- Taco Bell
- Wild Greens

The search for restaurants in the Indianapolis area, visit: www.indyorg or www.indydt.com/restaurantsteplate.asp

A very good site for finding ethnic restaurants is www.indyethnicfood.com

Daylight Savings Time
Most places in the United States observe “Daylight Savings Time.” In the Spring all clocks are moved forward one hour, and in the fall they are moved back again. Each year Daylight Savings Time starts on the second Sunday in March and ends the first Sunday in November.

Telephone Service
For long distance calls you have a choice of providers. Be sure to shop around for the company that offers the best long distance service. For international calls, the most economical service is prepaid calling cards.

Cell Phone Service
Rates vary considerably; be sure to compare different services to find the best for you. International Students: If you do not have an SSN, it will be necessary to make a deposit (from $120 to $500, depending on the company) in order to purchase regular cellular service or you may buy pre-paid service. The deposit will be returned in one year if you pay our bill on time each month of that year. The following is a listing of major cell phone companies providing service in central Indiana and their location closest to IUPUI. The malls listed above also have cellular phone locations.

E-mail Service
At IUPUI, e-mail is considered the official form of communication with students, staff and faculty. If you use another e-mail address, please forward your IUPUI account to that address so you can receive all school related communications. Information is frequently sent through this medium; therefore, you should periodically check your e-mail for messages.

How do I get an e-mail UserID if I Don’t have one?
Any student enrolled at IUPUI can get a UserID and use e-mail in any of the public computer clusters on campus or your laptop. You may obtain a UserID and e-mail account by visiting the UITS web site: http://itaccounts.iu.edu. Select “create my first IU computing accounts and passwords”. Follow the instructions carefully to obtain your UserID.

Basic Utility Services
If you are renting an off-campus apartment, utility services may or may not be included in your apartment lease. Before signing the lease, ask the apartment management which utilities you are responsible to arrange for yourself.

International Students: Most utility services will ask for a Social Security Number (SSN) as a requirement. In all cases, it is possible to obtain these services without an SSN, but you may need to explain as a non-working foreign citizen you are not eligible for an SSN. If you have an SSN, you will be able to arrange most services by telephone during the hours of service listed.

If you do not have an SSN, we recommend that you visit the offices in person where possible. It is generally easier to present your passport and other required documents in person. The process for arranging utilities without an SSN can be complicated. If you find that you need assistance, please contact the Office of International Affairs Arrive Assistance Services staff for help.
